INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

THE School of Nursing, established in 1903, started with the advantage of being able to adopt only approved methods of organization. The eight hour day, the six months preparatory course with intensive class instruction, the opportunity of practical training in the Presbyterian Hospital bringing contact with leading members of the medical profession, affiliation with Rush Medical College assuring class instruction by the members of that staff, all combined in placing the new school among the leading nurses' schools of the country. Each year it has been the effort of those in charge to develop the school, to elaborate its practical and theoretical courses of instruction, to grow and branch out in all ways beneficial to the students of the school.

GOVERNMENT

The School is a part of the Presbyterian Hospital governed by the Board of Managers, which is responsible for the education, health and general welfare of the students. This Board is assisted in advancing the interests of the School by the members of the Woman's Auxiliary Board, a strong organization which does much to aid in the home life of the student and is vitally interested in everything which pertains to her advancement. A special school committee composed of professional and non-professional members, also contributes to the better interests of the School.

GIFTS

In 1909, Mr. Nelson B. Holden left to the School the sum of three thousand six hundred forty nine dollars and eighty-six cents, the yearly interest of this to be used for the benefit of the School, and forming the beginning of an Endowment Fund. In September, 1921, the Alumnae Association decided to make an effort to push this fund to completion, hoping to make it a worthy memorial to the graduates of the School who have died.

In March, 1920, the Nurses Alumnae Association voted an annual subscription of twenty-five dollars, later increased to forty dollars, to be used for professional magazines for the Library.

During the year 1921 Mr. Ernest A. Hamill has made his usual donation of money to cover the Christmas festivities; Miss Helen V. Drake of victrola records, birthday cake and many other gifts; Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Day, Mrs. David W. Graham and other friends of the School, their customary contributions of books, fruit and flowers.

AFFILIATION

Besides affiliation with the University of Chicago through Rush Medical College, which provides instructors for a portion of the class work and practical experience in the care of all its many clinics, close co-operation has existed since the organization of the School with the Central Free

Dispensary, where also student nurses have the privilege of attending valuable clinics.

More recent affiliations have been made for contagious training with the Durand Contagious Hospital, for mental training with the Chicago State Hospital, for prenatal work with the Chicago Infant Welfare Society, and for Rural Nursing through the Bureau of Social Service of Cook County, while an effort is being made to secure closer affiliation with the University of Chicago. The School has been a member of the Central Council of Nursing Education since in 1920 it was organized to maintain the Standard of Nursing Education in the Middle West.

LOCATION AND EQUIPMENT

The faculty and students of the School live in the Sprague Home, a modern fire proof building completed in 1912, opposite to and connected by subway with the Presbyterian Hospital. It is provided with well equipped laboratory, library, and other class rooms, while bed rooms, dining, recreation and reception rooms are comfortable and cheerful.

The use of the roof of the Home during hot weather helps to make the summer more pleasant.

The Presbyterian Hospital offers unexcelled opportunities for experience in medical, surgical, gynæcological, obstetrical and children's nursing, while training and experience in other branches of nursing are arranged for by affiliation.

Graduate nurses instruct and supervise the practical and theoretical work of the student nurse: dietitians, social service and occupational therapy workers direct the student while in those departments. This with the assistance of the Medical Staff of the Presbyterian Hospital and of the faculty of the Rush Medical College provides a complete and high order of instruction and assures a steady advance in modern nurse education methods.

The address of the Sprague Home is 1750 West Congress Street, between Hermitage Avenue and Wood Street, and can be reached by any of the trains of the Metropolitan Elevated Railway, the Marshfield Avenue station of which is three blocks east of the Home; by the Ogden Avenue, Van Buren and Harrison Street electric lines, which cross Wood Street one block from the Home.

The telephone number is West 2027. Address all correspondence to the Principal, 1750 W. Congress Street, or at the Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago.

GENERAL STATEMENT

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

STUDENTS entering the end of March and the end of September should be between the ages of nineteen and thirty-five; they must present evidence of good health, of good moral character, and of having completed an education equivalent to at least four years of high school. Before entrance a Qualifying Certificate, obtained upon application from the Department of Registration and Education, Springfield, Illinois, must be secured and sent to the School.

It is desirable that the candidate make an appointment with the Principal of the School to apply in person. When this is not possible, a written application may be submitted.

Young women preparing for nursing work do well to select in their school work such subjects as Chemistry, Bacteriology, Biology, Sociology, and Psychology. Some credit is given to candidates who have graduated from approved colleges, and to those who in a part college course present suitable records from their colleges.

The first six months of the three years' course consists of a preparatory period during which time intensive instruction is given to the student to prepare her for nursing duties. For five days of the week, an average of 2 to 4 hours are spent in the class room, while practical training under supervision averages from 4 to 6 hours daily.

At the end of six months, if the student has shown evidence of a general fitness for nursing, good health and ability to keep up with the class instruction, she is allowed to adopt the school uniform and is placed on eight-hour nursing duty in the Presbyterian Hospital.

Students are free one half day each week and part of Sunday when they are privileged to visit friends or places of interest in the city.

A graduate nurse is on duty in the Sprague Home. If ill the student should report to her.

Members of the Medical Staff of the Hospital give professional service gratuitously to students of the School of Nursing.

Three months' vacation is granted during the three years. As lengthened or repeated absences from the School prevent the student keeping up with her class, she is advised to use the vacation allowance for rest and recreation only, and to avoid unnecessary interruption in her duties.

With the exception of a Registration Fee of ten dollars paid at the time the candidate is given an appointment in the class chosen for entrance, no fees are charged.

Board, room and a reasonable amount of laundry are provided from the date of entrance, personal expenses only, including uniforms and text books being borne by the student.

The Woman's Auxiliary Board grants small monthly loans to students recommended by the Principal of the School. At least six months' residence is necessary with a record of general fitness before a loan may be permitted.

The Woman's Board also grants after six months' residence scholarships of ten dollars a month to young women preparing for the missionary field and who have already been approved by the Board under which they expect to serve.

Candidates whose homes are in Chicago may be accepted as day students. These students return to their homes each night for the first two years of training, special arrangements of hours of duty being made for this group. The same privilege is granted selected women, non-residents of Chicago, whose age and other qualifications make this permissible. In both cases the third year is expected to be spent in residence in the Sprague Home.

The social life of the students includes appropriate celebration of the birthday of the School, and other local and national anniversaries; informal parties or dances upon request of members of the household; attendance at the weekly meetings of the Y. W. C. A., a branch of the National Student Organization; rehearsals and concerts of the Florence Nightingale Chorus, and other suitable activities. Pianos, a victrola and moving picture machine all help to bring interest and pleasure to the students.

Commencement exercises are held annually. Students who successfully meet the requirements of the School are presented with diplomas and School pins. The diploma of the School admits the graduate for examination to become a Registered Nurse in Illinois, or other states where registration laws are in effect.

The Alumnae Association, organized in 1906, is a means of mutual benefit and pleasure to the graduates of the School. By membership in the Alumnae Association each graduate becomes a member of the District, State and National Nursing Organizations and is eligible for membership in the nursing service of the National Red Cross. Use of the endowed room in the Presbyterian Hospital when ill, is another of the many privileges of membership.

Since 1920, November 11 of each year is held by the School as Home Coming Day for its graduates and all graduates are invited to take part in the reunion.

NOTE:—On account of the six months' preliminary period, and of the elective affiliated courses, class work is carried throughout the entire year. Most subjects are given twice yearly to allow each student opportunity to attend the course. Those subjects designated as given "once a year" are taken by groups of students in different divisions, each student carrying the course but one time.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION NURSING

CLASSES in nursing, conducted by nurses selected for their experience, skill and knowledge, are held regularly from the time the student enters the school, until the end of the period of training. The instruction consists of demonstrations, talks, quizzes, and is graded according to the rank of the student. Starting in the preliminary period with demonstrations of those nursing duties which may be performed in the earlier stages of training, it carries the student as she advances through every detail of nursing technique, including nursing of the sick child, and of the adult in all forms of illness. Medical, surgical, gynæcological nursing methods are carefully taken up, while nursing of the mother before, during and after confinement, with proper care of the infant, is given emphasis. Correct operating room technique, method of care of the injured or diseased eye, ear, nose and throat all have proper presentation in this course. Class instruction is supplemented by teaching and supervision of graduate nurses in the daily routine nursing accomplished in the Presbyterian Hospital, the Central Free Dispensary, in the clinics and out door obstetrical department of the Rush Medical College, and for those who elect contagious or mental training in the Durand Contagious Hospital, and the Chicago State Hospital.

ETHICS OF NURSING

This course also runs throughout the entire period of training and deals with the relation of the hospital to the community; the attitude of the nurse toward the patient, the public, the physician; hospital etiquette and discipline; nursing traditions and ideals. It aims to encourage student nurses to gain a broad and sympathetic attitude towards abnormal persons, whether from physical, mental or social causes, and to strengthen their attitude towards right and wrong.

The course is given by nurses qualified to suitably present it.

APPLIED SOCIOLOGY

This course is given by a Professor of Sociology. It is necessarily elementary, concrete and non-theoretical. It is designed to give the nurse the concept of the normal standard of living and an understanding of social problems as related to her work. Physical and mental diseases and accidents are considered from the point of view of their social causes, social effects, social treatment and ultimate prevention. The special problems of wage-earning families, children, and foreigners are presented in relation to major social maladjustments.

MATERIA MEDICA AND TOXICOLOGY

This instruction is grouped into separate courses given by the Pharmacist of the Presbyterian Hospital, a nurse instructor and an instructor selected by the Rush Medical College.

The aim is to familiarize the student with the appearance and use of the more commonly used drugs, to develop in her habits of accurate observation regarding the handling of drugs, to secure proficiency in making standard solutions, and in the necessary figuring of dosage.

It includes the study of therapeutic action of drugs, their dosage and poisonous effects; emphasizes the need for accurate and intelligent administration of medicines, and the observation of symptoms affected by the use of them, and also deals specially with antidotes for the common forms of poisoning.

REFERENCE BOOKS:

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

A course is given during the preliminary period in simple gymnastic exercises. The object is to develop the muscles of the back, neck, feet, and other not commonly used muscles, so that the student may be ready for the eight hour day of nursing in the hospital. This is given by an instructor from one of the Chicago Schools of Physical Education.

SPECIAL LECTURES AND CLASSES

These lectures are given by specialists and cover many subjects. They are supplemented by classes in which the students have opportunity to discuss questions and problems important for them to be informed upon. Some of the subjects covered are:

Tuberculosis—care of patients and its social aspect.

Special orthopedic apparatus and its intelligent use.

Anæsthesia—administration, kinds and dangers.

Hospital Social Service.

Hydro-therapy.

Occupational Therapy.

A general survey of the nursing field, including the various forms of nursing open to the graduate nurse.

Modern Social Conditions.

Other subjects as opportunity arises.
